

THE BROOKHALL

MACREDDIN VILLAGE

The Perfect Venue, Whatever the Season...

Your Wedding ...

Imagine having a graceful village wedding in a splendid country house hotel, where the management and crew have just two goals - to make your wedding the happiest day of your lives and to ensure your guests are totally pampered. A hotel where the commitment to really good food, impeccable service and attention to detail is absolute.

At BrookLodge, we believe that making dreams come true can be an everyday occurrence.

We are convinced that we have the ability, experience and imagination to make your wedding celebration a day to remember, and we are certain that if you afford us the opportunity, we can prove that our actions speak even louder than words.

Since we opened our doors in 1999, we have been honored to be the recipients of a large amount of highly complimentary press reviews and commendation letters from guests. The press reviews can be accessed on the website, and letters we received from people who booked weddings at The BrookLodge can be viewed at the hotel.

Naturally you will have many ideas about your wedding, ways to make the day your own. Here, in Brooklodge it is our goal to bring those ideas to life however understated or exuberant. Our experienced wedding team will be with you every step to ensure a seamless perfect day.

The unique setting is more than matched with our exquisite food and drinks collection. Every dish is carefully prepared by our head chef and his dedicated experienced team. Select a wedding breakfast from our seasonal menus or you can always discuss your personal preferences with our dedicated wedding team.

Macreddin Chapel

Macreddin Chapel, located in our grounds, just across the village green, seats up to 150 persons, and is approved for the solemnisation of civil marriages and partnerships or you may use the Chapel for an intimate blessing.

After the ceremony it is just a simple walk across the green to BrookHall.

BrookHall - The Perfect Venue...

Situated in the heart of Macreddin Village, BrookHall includes The River Room, a Mezzanine Bar, a dedicated reception area, 24 en suite bedrooms with French windows or patios and a swimming pool.

The River Room can seat 200 diners in a vaulted, sun-filled grand hall and undoubtedly raises the bar for wedding venues in Ireland. For those lucky enough to be getting married on a balmy summer's day or evening, five double doors leading onto 160sq meters of south facing decking overlooking Ballycreen Brook, affords the perfect setting for showcasing the glamour of your wedding day. And for winter weddings, a great stone fireplace at either end of the room guarantees a truly warm and romantic atmosphere.

About Macreddin Village

BrookLodge and BrookHall are situated in beautiful Macreddin Village and surrounded by spectacular Wicklow countryside, yet only an hour's drive from South Dublin.

Home to The BrookLodge - AA Hotel of the Year 2009 and Georgina Campbell's Hotel of the Year 2010, Macreddin is a unique destination, just one hours drive from South Dublin.

A luxury 5 star spa whose extravagant experiences are sourced from around the globe including Serail Mud Baths, Floatation Therapy, Hammam Massage, Aroma & Finnish Baths, an outdoor hot tub and a complete Declor & Carita range of treatments. A unique indoor-to-outdoor swimming pool completes this experience and all the water used comes from our very own wells.

Our Waterside Lounge is the perfect spot for unwinding with a drink and a magazine and on fine summer days you can sit out by Ballycreen Brook.

Ireland's only certified organic restaurant, and winner of food & Wine Magazine's Best Leinster restaurant, The Strawberry Tree, serves only wild and organic foods sourced from local artisan food suppliers. Winner of the Best Leinster Restaurant in the 2010 Good Food Guide. While in La Taverna Armento, a full Southern Italian menu awaits.

The Big Table in The Strawberry Tree, provides a unique opportunity for The Strawberry Tree Kitchen to prepare foods and a menu that simply cannot be served in a normal restaurant setting, presented on a single table that can stretch from 8 to 50 people. A similar style of menu, called Momma's Table, serving a selection of platters of Italian cuisine to share is available in La Taverna Armento.

In the village we have Acton's Country Pub & Brewery where we brew and serve our very own beers and The Orchard Café, where great home cooking has been given a modern twist. As well as our fine food and drink, Macreddin Village has its own Organic Bakery & Smokehouse along with "The Storerooms" – A selection of food, wine and tableware shops.

And for guests who like to keep active Macreddin Stables & Equestrian Centre, offers horse riding, trekking and lessons for riders of all skill levels.

THE BROOKHALL

MACREDDIN VILLAGE

Co. Wicklow, Ireland

T: 0402 36444

Intl. T: 00 353 402 36444

Email: weddings@brooklodge.com

GPS Co-ordinates: N52 52.78 W 006 19.89

www.brooklodge.com

DIRECTIONS: From Dublin City Centre:

- South on the M11/N11. Exit at Junction 16 (signposted Rathnew R772) (47kms).
- Go into Rathnew and then turn right at the roundabout taking the R752 to Rathdrum (13kms)
- As you arrive into Rathdrum, take the R753 to Aughrim (12kms)
- When you arrive in Aughrim, turn right at the church following the signs to the BrookLodge and Macreddin Village (3kms)

Hotel of the Year

GEORGINA
CAMPBELL'S ireland
2010
the guide

